

James Baldwin and Britain

Queen Mary
University
of London

Friday 21 & Saturday 22 March 2025

Symposium

James Baldwin and Britain

Queen Mary University
of London

Friday 21 & Saturday 22 March 2025

Symposium

James Baldwin, author and activist, was renowned as the most eloquent voice of the civil rights movement of the 1960s, and as a pioneering writer of queer fiction. This two-day symposium will gather together artists, activists and intellectuals to reflect on and reappraise Baldwin's complicated relationship to Britain, and to explore his continuing influence on British culture.

ALL INFORMATION ON ROOM/LOCATION
DETAILS WILL APPEAR
VIA THE QR CODE →

HTTPS://WWW.EVENTBRITE.CO.UK/E/1111484001569
JAMES BALDWIN SPEAKING AT THE EDINBURGH BOOK FESTIVAL, 1985. PHOTOGRAPH COURTESY OF FANNY DUBES